

Eye on 65

Insights for making retiree health care sustainable

Willis Towers Watson's Eye on 65 is your portal to the latest thinking and trends in health care coverage for retirees. As a leader in retiree health coverage for more than a decade, our knowledge and expertise in this area is unparalleled. We've created Eye on 65 to give readers access to our best ideas and learnings through dynamic content, engaging virtual events, and Q&A sessions with our retiree health care experts.

Sustaining Public Sector Retiree Health Care in the COVID-19 Era and Beyond

Hear Laura Rich, executive officer for Nevada Public Employees' Benefits Program (PEBP), discuss the changes PEBP made to future-proof its retiree health care program.

Register now >

Spend 90 seconds watching this video, and we'll buy lunch for a senior in need

Our service center crew wants you to know that they're here for retirees. We think you'll love what they have to say, and for every view, we'll help support vulnerable retirees by donating $5 to Meals on Wheels.*

View Now >

How the City of Memphis Saved Its Retiree Health Care Program

Read about the changes the City of Memphis made to its retiree health care program, which resulted in a reduction of its OPEB obligation by $319 million.

Read more >

To learn more, visit us at www.optimizeretireebenefits.com.

*For each "We're Here for You" video view, Willis Towers Watson will donate $5 to Meals on Wheels America, up to a maximum of $2,500.

