

Edition 6 | 12/7/2022

In this edition of Keeping You In The Know, I am excited to share our new look!

With this refresh, I am also announcing my retirement effective April 2023. While I am saddened to no longer be working and communicating regularly with you, I am excited to re-introduce Kathleen Porter as your new point of contact going forward in each issue of Keeping You In The Know! Connect with Kathleen by email, on LinkedIn, or by phone at (716) 603-8326 so she can answer your questions about Via Benefits.

My recent travels found me at the IFEBP Employee Benefits Conference in Las Vegas. It was wonderful presenting on Medicare and Public Plan Participants - Understanding options for plan sponsors and retirees with Laura Rich, Executive Director, Nevada PEBP as well as Health Coverage Options for Retirees. Prior to my retirement, I plan to share the facts of those presentations with you for your reference.

To learn more about Via Benefits and the individual marketplace, subscribe to Eye on 65, a podcast for employers concerned about retiree healthcare. If you have any topics you'd like to have explored on the podcast, let me know. And, as always, feel free to call me at (614) 205-0117 or email me with any questions!
