

Keeping you in the know

with Marianne Steger

Edition 7 | 2/28/2023

Wow, we have a lot to discuss in this issue of Keeping You in the Know! I would like to take this time to wish you all a fond farewell during my last issue hosting this newsletter before starting my retirement adventure. I'm looking forward to some down time to garden, read, and travel with our new puppy Zora.

With my retirement beginning May 1, I am saddened to no longer be regularly working and communicating with you but also very excited to have Kathleen Porter take the lead as your new point of contact going forward in each issue! I invite you to connect with Kathleen by email, on LinkedIn, or by phone at (716) 603-8326 so she can answer your questions about Via Benefits and how to elevate your clients' retiree healthcare benefits through the power of choice.

To learn more about Via Benefits and the individual marketplace, I invite you to explore our microsite and subscribe to Eye on 65, a podcast for employers and plan sponsors looking to elevate their retiree healthcare benefits. If you have any topics you'd like to have explored on the podcast, let me know before my retirement! And, as always, feel free to call me at (614) 205-0117 or email me with any questions!

If you are interested in reviewing previous issues of Keeping You in the Know, find all past issues here. Keep an eye out for future issues coming from KYITK.newsletter@mail.willistowerswatson.com and be sure to add to your "safe senders" list.

Retiree Medical Survey Results

Retiree Medical Survey Results

Did you know that one in eight employers plans to revamp its retiree healthcare benefits over the next three years? They are also planning to end benefits to Pre-Medicare retirees and replace those with individual insurance through a private marketplace.
